

America

Neil Girrard

Intro: Am

Am F Am C
A restlessness stirs within me. The fire seems almost gone.

Am F C G
Where once we turned to God above, again we walk alone.

Am F Am F Am F C D7
History repeats itself for those who never learn. God is calling out to us simply to return

G C D C G C D C
To purity, honesty, humility and love, justice, mercy, the grace of God above.

G C D C
Forsake your greed, admit your need, seek the face of God,

G D C Am
The holy One, the righteous One, the Savior of mankind.

D Am D Am D Am F G7
Turn to Him, trust in Him, believe in His name, The name above all names to which every knee shall bow.

D Am D Am D Am C D7
Jesus Christ, the First and Last, the Lamb that was slain. Listen to His Spirit, believe and be saved.

G C D C G C D C
America, the beautiful, built in God's grand design of liberty, equality, peace among mankind.

G C D C G C D C
She's turned her back on God above, never knowing why poverty and lawlessness grow as more men die.

Am F Am C
God has judged our land for years but no one calls on His name.

Am F Am G
With pride in our abundance, we leisurely add to our shame,

Am F Am F Am F C D7
Committing the sins of Sodom<sup>1</sup>, going in the way of Cain<sup>2</sup>, God is calling out to us simply to return

G C D C G C D C
To purity, honesty, humility and love, justice, mercy, the grace of God above.

G C D C
Forsake your greed, admit your need, seek the face of God,

G D C Am
The holy One, the righteous One, the Savior of mankind.

Am F Am D7 Am F C D7
Turn to Him, trust in Him, believe in His name, the name above all names to which every knee shall bow.

Am F Am F Am F C D7
Jesus Christ, the First and Last, the Lamb that was slain. Listen to His Spirit, repent and be saved

G C D C G C D C
To purity, honesty, humility and love, justice, mercy, the grace of God above.

G C D C
Forsake your greed, admit your need, seek the face of God,

G D C Am
The holy One, the righteous One, the Savior of mankind.

G D C Am
The holy One, the righteous One, the only Savior of mankind.